

AQIB ALI KALWAR

FRONTEND DEVELOPER

I am a motivated Frontend Web Developer with expertise in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and growing proficiency in React. Currently pursuing a Bachelor's in Computer Science, I am dedicated to expanding my knowledge in modern web technologies. Through continuous learning and practical experience, I've developed projects like the Al Jannat Educational Foundation website and a personal portfolio, showcasing my skills in React, Bootstrap, and SQL. I aim to create responsive, efficient, and visually appealing web applications that enhance user experience.
